Mr. Stevenson:

no reporter at the U.N. (Paul Ward, Baltimore Sun--Protest Journal) wonders if the President discussed the K letter with Adenauer. The press have been known to lack information.

Here is the A1 story based on what must have been full disclosure by someone in Washington. Note Hightower is State Dept. reporter.
He has a story on Page 2 based on what he can find here--and it bears no resemblance to the Washington output.

BLAST SETS SHIP K to Pull Out Jets—IF

Call Terms Impossible

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev has sent President Kennedy an offer to pull Russian jet bombers out of Cuba out attached so many "ifs" that a Cuban settlement is not within sight, authoritative sources said early today.

Khrushchev's proposal, it was learned, was received several days ago and is being discussed at top-level—presumably in New York where U. S. and Soviet representatives have been trying to hammer out an agreement.

Exactly what conditions the Soviet premier attached to his offer were not disclosed.

SLOWS SOLUTION

But there were so many, the sources said, that they cannot foresee a swift solution to the problem they have been known to a fire to the Cuban crisis. Authoritative sources said Khrushchev's proposal for withdrawing the planes came in one of several letters he and Kennedy exchanged—none of which has been made public—since their weekend talks of Oct. 27-28 drafting an agreement to end the crisis.

Mr. Kennedy has insisted that the 150-mile range bombers are in the same offensive weapons category as the Soviet missiles and must also be removed.

PRESS RUSSIANS

U. S. officials have reported that 42 of the missiles were located on Soviet-made strategic bases from Cuba. That's the number of missiles the Russians say they had on the island.

Officials here look upon the removal of the missiles (unless some are hidden in caves, as followers of the most implacable of Mr. Khrushchev's promises to Mr. Kennedy).

In addition to a bonfire for the missiles, Khrushchev has not carried out his promise to allow U. S. inspection of the withdrawal of weapons and their bases—which Castro has cried he will not permit.

Britain Opens Probe Of Massive Spy Ring

LONDON, Nov. 15 (AP)—A leading expert on Britain's security system today began an investigation of sensational rumors that a government minister planned to flee to Russia with a homosexual spy.

Prime Minister Macmillan in a startling statement to the House of Commons yesterday said for a "trial of truth" he named 60-year-old Lord Goldcliffe as the head of a national war acceptance powers to look into the rumors and the state of government security.

WARNING ON SECURITY

The spy alert was heightened by 41 miles per hour being the head of the Admiralty, also charged that thousands of Communist agents again are operating in Britain.

Mr. Macmillan himself warned that possible leaks and espionage are being re-

Narcotics-infected New York City will ask the Federal Government next year for a $1,000,000 shot-in-the-arm — research grants, prevention aids and after-care facilities for addicts.

The N. Y. Journal-American learned today that the appeal for U. S. funds is only one proposal in an ambitious anti-narcotics program being drafted by the City Health Dept.

LAST PROPOSAL

A department report, so confidential it has not yet been submitted to Mayor Wagner, advocates:

- $500,000 for a "free study" of adolescent drug users.
- $150,000 for a "Halfway House" addict rehabilitation center in Manhattan.
- $150,000 for three new residential and after-care clinics.
- $80,000 for narcotics education and prevention programs.

The report, prepared by the Dept. of the Narcotics Coordinator, recommends that applications for these funds be filed with the National Institute of Mental Health.

UNDO HEALTH CARE

Sources close to City Hall said the report will be submitted this week to Health Commissioner Dr. George James and Dr. Theodore Rosenblatt, City Narcotics Coordinator.

It also was learned the report will call upon New York State to establish Upstate health camps for the post-hospital care of addicts.

The Office of the Narcotics Coordinator is currently operating on a budget of $300,000 — to track one-third the amount it is expended to look of the Federal government.

Prime Minister Macmillan in a startling statement to the House of Commons yesterday called for a "trial of truth." He named 62-year-old Lord Delfoid as the head of a tribunal with sweeping powers to look into the rumors and the state of government security.

WARNING ON SECURITY

The spy alarm was heightened by Charles Ian Orr-Ewing, Chief Lord of the Admiralty, who charged that thousands of Communist secret agents are operating in Britain.

Mr. Macmillan himself warned that "bottle intrigue and espionage are being relentlessly maintained on a large scale" in Britain and that massive efforts are being made by every possible means to uncover the security.

His statement was prompted by a rumor that Thomas Galbraith, former Chief Lord of the Admiralty and the second-ranking civilian official there, planned to defect to Russia with William John Vassall.

On the French sector border in the north an East German soldier escaped unharmed. West Berlin police reported.

The 19-year-old border guard was on patrol on the western eastern border when he made a dash for a barbed wire barrier separating the American sector district of Rudow from the East German district of Gross Zienhofen. The border at that point runs through a small woods in a country district of the city.
